

Senior Network Engineer/Windows (WINDUB0112) - Dublin

Profile of Role

The successful candidate will implement our hardware, software and network security products. Ensure our SLAs are met and that all systems (mixed Windows / Linux infrastructure) are properly maintained and the highest availability level is achieved. We provide an extensive range of business continuity / disaster recovery solutions and it is important to ensure that they operate as specified.

All duties are to be performed within the context of a secure IT infrastructure and staff must be aware of all information security requirements.

Positions are available in Belfast or Dublin.

This is a fast growing area of our business and offers excellent prospects in terms of challenging work and career advancement

The Person

- Third level qualification in related discipline
- Organised and methodical, ability to multi task, with good time keeping skills
- Good customer handling skills
- Driving license
- Availability to travel and to work flexible hours

Criteria

- Experience deploying and supporting Windows servers in an enterprise environment
- Hardware support experience
- Proven ability in windows 2003/2008 domain administration, Windows XP/Vista/7 administration, advanced domain configuration (GPO, DFS, multi-site networking)
- Highly desirable is experience in any of the following; security certificates, smart cards, IIS, Sharepoint, WSUS, antivirus products, proxy & web filtering, mail server solutions, backup technologies, switches (smart, stackable), firewalls, wireless networking
- Professional certifications are an advantage

Specifications

- The Position is full time and permanent
- Health Care Scheme is provided

Applications:

Closing date: 27th January 2012

CV to be sent (quoting reference) to Paula Mahood pmahood@well-it.com